

When making a diagonal or horizontal join to the letter o, go right across to o's starting point then retrace a little before you head back down.

Remember to retrace when joining after o. Do not make a loop.

retrace no wo retrace

retrace on on don't loop!

Trace, then copy.

bo wo oo mo co oi on ot

wood tomorrow oboe love

On 31 December 2004, an avalanche stuck Mt Tasman, New Zealand, and knocked a group of climbers 500 metres down the mountain.

SELF ASSESSMENT

Circle your best join to o and your best join from o.